

Elysian

About the brand

Everything you do is the extension of your beauty. This is the philosophy of Elysian. The international fashion award winner designer believes in modern femininity and comfort chic. The Budapest based brand is characterized by sophisticated tailoring, craftsmanship, flowing fabrics, self-designed digital prints, hand pleating and transparent layering. In 2019 the brand received the “Vote the One” Award by CameraModa and Camera Buyers Italia.

Designer

Boglárka Bódis, winner of Triumph Inspiration Award 2011, an international fashion award, launched her womenswear brand in 2012 in Budapest.

Boglárka runs an atelier in the heart of Budapest offering ready-to wear garments and made-to-measure services. She combines craftsmanship and traditional techniques like hand pleating, with modern fabrics and style. The bodysuit specialist designer recently introduced a new line, the Elysian Body Chic Collection, which is a bodysuits collection to be worn with essential pieces of skirts, dresses and pants.

Elysian AW21_22 : Secret Forest

Elysian's upcoming fall/winter collection is inspired by the autumn forest and the change of colors in nature during autumn and winter time. Dresses with giant leaves printed on silk, pants and tops made of light wool fabrics, mohair knitted pieces, cashmere wool coats make the collection complete. Signature Elysian techniques like layering, hand pleating, the designer's hand-drawn digital prints are present also in this season in this feminine however modern collection. Color blocks in forest green, curry yellow, pastel grey and black, and high quality fabrics like silk organza, satin silk, light wool, soft tulle make the garments eye-catching.

Come with us for a walk in our secret forest!
